The first leg of the Charlie Skinner Cup was a very wet match which resulted in most of the vehicles having to be towed back up the track at the end of the match by Colin Skeel and his four-wheel truck. Fortunately for us Ted Odell had a tow rope in his car. Colin won the match from peg 17 landing a Carp of 12 13 0 in the first hour on yellow wafter adding 3 9 0 of small silver fish for his 16 6 0. Runner up Mark Waite on peg 20 had a Tench of 3 9 0 and a nice net of silvers for 10 2 0 all on the pole and maggot. Third was Rowland Smith on peg 12 with several nice skimmers and Roach on method and wafers for 9 2 0.
