Six anglers turned out for the final leg of the Rose Bowl on a lovely summer evening but the fishing did not live up to the conditions, Tim Brightey led the way with 13 1 0 by snatching victory in the dying minutes from Les Hammond with a last ditch cast for Carp on the method feeder and yellow wafter hooking a 10 11 0 specimen landing on the final whistle. Les who was the only one to catch consistently all evening on the pole with maggot and worm managed 10 5 0 which consisted of a nice Bream and a Tench, third on the night was Darren Chillcot with 5 2 0 on pole and maggot with a late Bream and some small Roach. Ted Odell came out on top winning the Rose Bowl this year with a consistent performance over the series of matches scoring 42 points over his top five from six matches, there was a tie on 38 points between Colin Ryall, Rowland Smith and Tim Brightey with Rowland finishing runner up beating Tim by only three ounces over the five scoring matches.
