Seaford ran out easy winners of the latest three-way interclub match beating Hassocks by over 85 0 0 and filling first and third places. Top on the day was Fabian fishing from peg seven for Seaford, the former feeder international fished very light method feeders all day for his 77 14 0 using wafers which gave him a steady run of fish throughout the match whilst others struggled. Second went to Hassocks angler Ian Thompson from the field bank on peg 25 who managed just under 70 0 0 fishing method feeder and pole. Third also representing Seaford was Gary Mason who was on the next peg from Ian with 53 7 0 catching on pole and paste. Hassocks retained the Dick Herrington Cup against Haywards Heath comparing the top three from each team on the day with Hassocks weighing 96 3 0 compared to Haywards Heath having 20 5 0.
