Sixteen took part in this interclub match with Seaford at Piddinhoe today with Hassocks coming out on top by just over 31 0 0 on a chilly blustery day. Seaford provided the top individual with Trevor Hoad weighing 54 7 0 which included 6 0 0 of silvers from peg 21. He landed all his Carp on the method feeder and different coloured wafers with two mil. Pellets on the feeder. Second was Colin Ryall fishing for Hassocks with 51 2 0 on peg 4. He landed a Carp of 17 12 0 on his first cast which set him up for the rest of the match he also had his Carp on the method feeder and wafers, and like Trevor he had just over 6 0 0 of silvers. Third came from next door peg 3 with Keith Huggins also fishing for Hassocks weighing in 48 1 0. He had the best silver fish weight of just over 14 0 0 all on the cage feeder and maggots the rest was made up of Carp, with a bonus fish just over 16 0 0 coming near the end of the match.
