The last O A P match of this year was fished by eight anglers on the warmest day of the year so far. Stanbridge View produced some decent weights with Keith Huggins breaking the ton from peg 2, he fished the pole all day with sweet corn proving to be the most consistent bait finishing with 116 0 0. Second went to Steve Pead on peg 9 fishing the bomb and bread for most of the day, switching to the margin and meat for the last thirty minutes for several late fish for 79 9 0. Colin Ryall finished third from peg 7 with just over 40 0 0 alternating during the day between the feeder and the pole.
